

36 Hours in Brattleboro, Vermont

Appearing in many national magazine's "Best Small Towns" top ten lists, Brattleboro offers visitors the experience of a quaint New England town with a hip, artsy, progressive edge. We hope you find this itinerary helpful in getting the most out of your visit.

FRIDAY

- 3PM After you cross the state line on I-91, stop by our award-winning Vermont Welcome Center. Kids can pretend to ride in an old gondola, learn a bit about the state, and maybe even sample some cheese or maple syrup.
- 4PM Grab a pick-me-up at our Brattleboro Food Coop. This independent whole foods store offers locally grown and made products and a cafe area complete with kids' play space and mountain view.
- 6PM Stroll across the street to The Brattleboro Museum to see the latest exhibits and check out the children's room. Ready for dinner? Family-friendly downtown restaurants include: Echo, Brattleburger, Tulip Cafe, or Superfresh! Organic Cafe on Main St., or Hazel on Elliot St..
- 8PM Savor dessert and play a game of checkers or chess at Mocha Joe's before catching a movie at our historic Latchis Theater.

SATURDAY

- 9AM Grab a light breakfast at the Vermont Country Deli on Western Ave (Rt 9 west of downtown) or save your appetite and continue 500 yards west to The Farmer's Market — a weekly event that includes music, a sandbox, produce and flowers, meats and cheeses, delicious prepared ethnic foods, and handcrafted wares.
- 11AM Time for the Oak Meadow Open House. Meet teachers and staff, browse curriculum materials, make arts and crafts, and enjoy Vermont treats!
- 2PM Head to late lunch at any of our favorite downtown sandwich shops. Staff favorites include Amy's Bakery Arts Cafe and The Works. Top it off with a cup of frozen yogurt at Wow.
- 5PM Visit one of our faves, Top Of The Hill Grill, for takeout or outdoor dining. You'll love their authentic pit barbeque, homemade sides & salads, vegetarian selections, and homemade desserts.
- 8PM Worn out from a busy day? If you're staying at our local Holiday Inn Express or Colonial Motel, you can relax while your kids enjoy swimming in their indoor pools.

SUNDAY

- 8AM Enjoy breakfast at The Porch Too, or at the award-winning Chelsea Royal Diner, a classic diner built in a refurbished train car that serves up imaginative farmer's breakfast using local products. Duo is more upscale, but it offers a super kid-friendly brunch menu.
- 10AM Slept in? Enjoy a tasty brunch buffet and fabulous views at The Marina, on Putney Road. You can cross the street and rent a canoe or kayak at The Vermont Canoe Touring Center and paddle the Connecticut or West Rivers.
- 12PM Head out for some apple picking at Green Mountain Orchards or a kid friendly hike up Black Mountain. Or, walk the Retreat Trails and end at the The Retreat Farm to visit the farm animals and Grafton Village Cheese, where the kids can sample Vermont's own Grafton cheddar.
